T

he Cultivating NEW LIFE program provides grants to American Baptist ministerial leaders to attend conferences, workshops and seminars focused on personal and congregational renewal. These grants support leaders of new churches and leaders working in congregational transformation.

Grants should be used for study in areas such as providing leadership for change, congregational transformation, discipleship, church administration, evangelism and spiritual formation. Grants of up to $300 are available annually to ministerial leaders listed in the current American Baptist Professional Registry.

Cultivating NEW LIFE grants may not be combined with other continuing education funding provided by National Ministries. Grant applications should be submitted to the Office of Financial Aid for Studies, National Ministries prior to your participation in an event. Programs that are primarily for recreation, travel, sightseeing, fellowship or therapy do not qualify for these grants.

Continuing education units (CEUs) may be added to your Profile by obtaining signed documentation from the program's registrar and sending a copy to American Baptist Personnel Services at the address on the back of this application.
