

WANTED: Fulltime housemother & housefather

Murrow Indian Children's Home, a faith-based nonprofit, seeks a mission-minded married couple with a Christian foundation to serve as loving and nurturing parents to Native American children.

Job Description and Summary

Murrow Indian Children's Home is a faith-based 501 (c) (3), level-B, residential facility that provides a home for Native American children in state or tribal custody as a result of abuse and neglect. House parents are responsible for 8-10 children in a family-style setting. Residents, who do not have serious behavior problems, need a stable, loving home environment, so consistency is of the utmost importance and a three-year commitment is desired. A private apartment, utilities and most meals are provided for the couple or family. Both house parents—with a calling from the Lord to Murrow's ministry—will actively support the children's culture, attend church and attend cultural activities and events.

Murrow Indian Children's Home focuses on nurturing socially, spiritually and culturally successful children by providing a safe nurturing environment, spiritual foundation and cultural experiences to Native American Children in crisis. Murrow is a mission of American Baptist Churches USA.

Salary: $34,000/year per couple

Exempt/non-exempt: Exempt

Benefits: Vacation; life, health and dental Insurance; apartment and most meals are provided.

Requirements:

All resident house parents must:

- Possess valid driver's license and clean driving record;
- Be 25 years of age or older; and
- Pass fingerprinted background check.
