

God's Word: A Prayer for Those Who Teach

Leader: Your word is a lamp before our feet and a light for our journey.

People: When the path seems unclear, draw us apart to the illumination of your word.

Leader: My people shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

People: Free us from human precepts and cultural values and bind us to your word.

Leader: Make an effort to present yourself to God as a tried-and-true worker, who interprets the message of truth correctly.

People: Give us integrity as we study and share our sacred Scripture with others.

Leader: But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.

People: Help us to validate our teaching by living your word day to day.

Leader: Just as the rain comes down from the sky, causing the earth to conceive and yield plants and providing seed for the next generation of growth, so too my word does not return empty.

People: Help us to trust the Bible as the word of love that will bring forth life from generation to generation.

Leader: Your word is a lamp before our feet and a light for our journey.

People: We yearn to walk with others in the light of your word.

All: In the name of Jesus, the light of the world, may it be so.

(Based on Ps. 119:105, 15; Is. 55:11, 2 Tim. 2:15, and Mtt. 4:4)
